SOCIAL IMPACT

The SDG Initiative

August 1, 2017 ♡12

"In a digital age, much learning has moved online. The Global Goals are no exception. You can help achieve them, and have real impact, starting today. I hope that Coursera, Leiden University and its partners inspire many more universities to join this fantastic initiative." Hunter Lovins – President, Natural Capitalism Solutions, Hero for the Planet, Time Magazine

Expand your impact! As an online learner you can now choose to drive positive change while improving your skills. Enrol today for one of our free social impact courses in cooperation with Coursera and learn how YOU can contribute to make the world a better place.

In July 2017, a group of 17 universities from 5 continents and Coursera decided to launch a new learning experience for those who want to turn their learning into real-life impact: help achieve the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The SDG's represent a political roadmap for countries and societal stakeholders aiming to reduce world-wide poverty and inequality, improve global health and well being and protect the environment.

The SDG Initiative

- Since 2015
- 193 world leaders came together to set the UN Sustainable Development Goals
- Goals :
    - Zero hunger
    - No poverty
    - Stop climate change
    - Gender equality
    - and so on
    - 17 Goals
